School staff advised they did not believe the student was aware the bill was not real. The bill was clearly a replica bill and was labeled as such. Rodriguez provided me with the bill which was entered as found property at PCPD.

[03/07/2023 09:56:03 : MOB : 310]
The vehicle is on private property and can be towed at the owner's request. Rodriguez advised that the vehicle was fine. He just wanted the Police to know about the vehicle because a cell phone was on the front passenger seat. A South Florida Baptist Hospital check was negative for Carnley being admitted in the last 36 hours.

[03/07/2023 09:37:15 : MOB : 310]
An NCIC/FCIC check on Florida tag Y364NN shows the vehicle is a black 2009 Nissan Versa that belongs to Mary Carnley, who lives in Davenport, Florida. The vehicle was parked on school property for the Strawberry Festival. I requested Plant City Communication have Polk County Sheriff's Office respond to Carnley's address to see if she knows where her vehicle is. I met with School Resource Officer Rodriguez and advised him that the vehicle was not listed as stolen.
